FREE DAY at the Museum!

February 16th through 22nd is Heritage Week. We invite you and your family to visit the Museum and celebrate with us. Sunday February 15th, Museum admission is free all day. The museum is open from noon to 4:30pm on Sundays.

Pssst: Are you on a Valentine's Day Budget? The Antique Show and Sale is also taking place on February 14th and 15th at the North Bay Legion. Park downtown, visit both venues, and enjoy a bite to eat for lunch at one of downtown's great eateries. Charm your sweetie with a weekend of antiques, a free museum visit, and lunch for less than dinner and a movie!

Is that you Uncle Joe? Another photographic mystery.

One of the many interesting things about our work here at the Museum involves a bit of mystery, and digging out our magnifying glass.

Recently, we have been intrigued by the photo below, trying to figure out the identities of these athletic young men. One of the individuals is wearing goalie equipment, and most of them have hockey sticks. Esteemed North Bay photographer William Forder captured a good natured game of hockey in this photograph that is classically Canadian.

Does anybody look familiar to you? Where was the photo taken? We have every reason to believe that these individuals are North Bay folks.

Stop by the Museum next week if you would like a closer look at this photo. While you are here, enjoy the Sports Hall of Fame exhibit in the upper gallery.
