Send us your ghost stories!

To celebrate our Second Season of North Bay Haunted Downtown Hikes, @discoverynorthbay is compiling the first ever definitive set of North Bay's creepiest, most haunting, and most unusual stories, and we need your help!

Send us your stories, whether they are your own experiences, or whether they are legends that have been passed down through your family history. North Bay has a haunted past that we are excited to tell!

Stories that you submit may be used in one or more of the following ways:

@discoverynorthbay plans to produce a Haunted Downtown Hikes souvenir booklet – “Haunted Stories of North Bay.”

Haunted Downtown Hikes – as these tours continue to develop and expand, we are constantly searching for downtown North Bay's best haunted stories. These tales are animated by experienced tour guides, who lead groups of ghost-hunters and skeptics alike on a gripping sunset tour.

If we use your story, you will receive an individual membership to the Discovery Centre, and a complimentary copy of the final publication.

Stories may be submitted to:

education@heritagenorthbay.com – subject “Haunted Stories”

Or, you can mail us your story to:
@discoverynorthbay Haunted Stories
100 Ferguson Street
North Bay, ON P1B 1W8

Legal

Submitted stories become the property of Heritage North Bay. If the stories receive publication, authors will receive byline credit for the submission. Submissions may be anonymous. Stories may be edited for content, length, and style.

O'Canada Museum Camp Day

Date: Friday, June 26th, 2009

Time: 9:00am to 4:00pm

Location: @discoverynorthbay

Details: Children age 5-12 are invited to participate. The program starts at 9:00am and ends at 4:00pm; however, extended care is available.

Parents, are you looking for something for your kids to do the first day out of school? Well Discovery North Bay has the answer for you. With Canada Day approaching, we have planned a Museum Camp Day with a Canadian theme. Children will learn some history of Canada, along with lots of fun filled crafts and activities.

Parents are instructed to pack a small peanut free snack and lunch for their child for the day, and both indoor and outdoor clothing.

$30 per child for existing members of the museum

$35 per child for non-members

Do you have historical photographs in your attic?

Discovery North Bay Museum is looking for photographs of North Bay taken between 1900 and 1960. Images of streetscapes, events, buildings (interior and exterior), vehicles, and celebrations are wanted.

Pictures of early West Ferris and Widdifield Townships are of particular importance as our collection is not well represented in these areas.

We are happy to scan the image so you may keep the original if you choose.

Drop by the Museum with your treasured photos and we will return them to you within 5 business days. Any written information that you are able to provide regarding the subject of the photo is appreciated.
